Purchaser of "A Beautiful Mind" Brought Stark Insights on A Beautiful Wife By Donald J. Doyle I loved reading the script of a Beautiful Mind so pre-Christmas I recorded the movie, and on Christmas Day I presented the disc and the copy of the script to My Beautiful Wife of more than 60 years. With the disc I wrote on page 117, the second last page of the script, "To the light of my life. Thank you for me -- You are the Creator and Keeper". The words on page 117 include: "Suddenly there is no one else in the room," and Nash says "Thank you for your belief in me after so many years. You are the reason I am here today." Then we teared up while watching the film together. The script is so insightful and wonderfully presented and worth reading regularly, as my wife and I do, even if it's just a few pages at a time. Highly recommended. "A Beautiful Mind, the intensely human drama of a true genius, is inspired by events in the life of mathematician John Forbes Nash, Jr. The handsome and highly eccentric Nash made an astonishing discovery early in life and stood on the brink of international acclaim. But his white-hot ascent into the intellectual stratosphere drastically changed course when Nash's intuitive brilliance was undermined by schizophrenia. Facing challenges that have destroyed many others, Nash fought back, with the help of his devoted wife Alicia. After decades of hardship, he triumphed over tragedy, and received the Nobel Prize in 1994. A living legend, Nash continues to pursue his work today." Directed by Ron Howard and produced by Brian Grazer, this Universal and DreamWorks production stars Russell Crowe as John Nash. The screenplay of A Beautiful Mind was written by Akiva Goldsman and based in part on the biography of Sylvia Nasar. The cast also includes Ed Harris, Jennifer Connelly, Paul Bettany, and Judd Hirsch.
