Richard Kilborn, John Izod : An introduction to television documentary: Confronting reality before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised An introduction to television documentary: Confronting reality:

A lively introduction to a subject which has attracted increasing interest in the last few years. A wide-ranging and carefully constructed account. Likely to be adopted on many courses (both foundational level and advanced) which include the study of documentary as part of a wider Media Studies agenda. Written in a highly accessible manner, it has the edge on rival publications on the subject, which have often proved to difficult for an undergraduate readership.

About the Author Richard Kilborn is Senior Lecturer in the Department of Film and Media Studies at the University of Stirling John Izod is Dean of the Faculty of Arts and Senior Lecturer in Film and Media Studies at the University of Stirling
