By Mac If any American or Canadian cannot relate to these yarns, she or he has a hole where a heart ought to be -- as Dr. Seuss might say. Listen, maybe with mist in your eyes, and ease into a comfortable chair or hammock, with an iced tea [or whatever] in your hand. Go ahead, close your eyes, but don't fall asleep until the CD starts to replay. In short, enjoy reminiscing the life that you know is somewhere deep inside you. 5 of 5 people found the following review helpful. Love Garrison! By Ginny My husband and I were introduced to Garrison Keillor's humor a good many years ago. My husband was a sales engineer (retired now) which required him to travel quite a lot. One day he happened to listen to Garrison addressing the Washington Press Club. My husband was laughing so much that he had tears in his eyes and couldn't see the road and had to pull off for safety reasons. We love "Tomato Butt", all the Rhubarb stories, etc. If or anyone else has the story about the uncle who prayed so long and cried, we would love to have it. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful.
