Good food and good stories keep the spirit alive.By MacIf any American or Canadian cannot relate to these yarns, she or he has a hole where a heart ought to be -- as Dr. Seuss might say. Listen, maybe with mist in your eyes, and ease into a comfortable chair or hammock, with an iced tea [or whatever] in your hand. Go ahead, close your eyes, but don't fall asleep until the CD starts to replay. In short, enjoy reminiscing the life that you know is somewhere deep inside you.5 of 5 people found the following review helpful. Love Garrison!By GinnyMy husband and I were introduced to Garrison Keillor's humor a good many years ago. My husband was a sales engineer (retired now) which required him to travel quite a lot. One day he happened to listen to Garrison addressing the Washington Press Club. My husband was laughing so much that he had tears in his eyes and couldn't see the road and had to pull off for safety reasons. We love "Tomato Butt", all the Rhubarb stories, etc. If or anyone else has the story about the uncle who prayed so long and cried, we would love to have it.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy K. E. GreenGreat compilation of the Keller artistry.

Lake Wobegon U.S.A. is the eagerly anticipated successor to News From Lake Wobegon (one of the bestselling spoken-word audio ever) and More News From Lake Wobegon. This collection contains 17 touching, exquisitely funny monologues from Garrison Keillor recorded during American Radio Company broadcasts from tour stops all over the country. The tales, says Keillor, are about "the luxury of rhubarb pie, the perils of prophecy, Florian and Myrtle's thrifty vacation, the vapor lights of Our Lady of Perpetual Responsibility. . . ." They are also about joy, grief, dreams, luck, and mysteries about the extraordinary moments of wonder that illuminate our ordinary lives. Contents:Fertility: The Kresbach's Vacation; Prophet; The Six Labors of Father Wilmer; FertilityPatience: Aunt Ellie; Duke's 25th; Jobhunting; You're Not the Only OneYouth: Blue Devils; Nostalgia; O Christmas Tree; Pageant; Messy ShoesRhubarb: Rhubarb; Sweet Corn; The Sun's Gonna Shine Someday; Yellow Ribbon
