Larry King : Larry King's Favorite Classic Radio Shows (Legends of Radio) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Larry King's Favorite Classic Radio Shows (Legends of Radio):

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. One of the best old-time radio collections By Chrisstine During the past year, I've become an avid listener to CDs of old time radio programs. Larry King's collection is my favorite. He sets the tone with an entertaining introduction of his own early days and fascination with radio. The mix of comedy, suspense, and drama is perfect. It is a cozy listen, with something excellent for every mood.

Overview: Larry King knows a thing or two about what makes great radio. He has been on the air nationally for more than a quarter-century and, according to The Guinness Book of Records, he has interviewed more people than anyone on earth. Larry has assembled a collection of digitally restored and remastered shows that fostered his love for radio, including comedies, dramas and variety programs. As Larry says, "This is the soundtrack of my childhood." Indeed, long before Lawrence Zeiger of Brooklyn, NY became Larry King, this eclectic group of classics shaped the formative years of a true radio legend. From AudioFile When radio legend Larry King was asked to pick a group of his favorite old-time radio shows, he found the task nearly impossible. For him, the only solution was to select the programs that brought him the fondest memories and helped foster his love of radio. From the Mercury Theater on the Air production of "The War of the Worlds" with Orson Welles to "Sorry, Wrong Number," with Agnes Moorehead; from comics like Fanny Brice, Bob Hope, and Burns and Allen to "The Third Man" and "Dragnet"--each of these 19 digitally restored and remastered radio classics is a dazzling example of how powerful audio presentations can be.
