This authorized version of the rules for contract (rubber) bridge games is an essential reference for all contract bridge players. It defines correct procedure for playing the game and tells what to do when a player inadvertently disturbs the proper course of the game. Use it to settle any disputes in your foursome and to become familiar with accepted bridge etiquette and customs.

About the AuthorThe American Contract Bridge League was founded in 1937. Today it is the largest bridge organization in the world, with more than 166,000 members living in the United States, Canada, Mexico and Bermuda. A not-for-profit organization, the ACBL determines internationally recognized rules of bridge, sanctions clubs and tournament games, and encourages participation at all levels of proficiency and experience. It is based in Horn Lake, MS near Memphis, TN.
