From Brand: Alfred Publishing : Le Petit Nègre: Sheet (Simply Classics Solos) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Le Petit Nègre: Sheet (Simply Classics Solos):

A "cakewalk" is an African-American dance that began in the 1800s and became popular in minstrel shows at the turn of the 20th century. It features syncopated, ragtime-like music to which a couple struts arm and arm using high steps. Debussy wrote Le petit Nègre in 1909 for another composer's elementary piano method. He closely modeled it after his successful "Golliwog's Cakewalk," the conclusion of his six-movement suite, Children's Corner, composed the previous year. This is a Simplified Masterwork Solo.
