James A. Hijiya : Lee de Forest and the Fatherhood of Radio before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Lee de Forest and the Fatherhood of Radio:

Lee de Forest invented the three-electrode vacuum tube, one of the foundations of radio technology. As one of the most prolific inventors in American history, he experimented in fields from talking pictures to solar energy. His biography is a history of the religion of technology. Illustrated.
