3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. MemoriesBy S. MitchellI still love these after my introduction as a child listening on Saturdays while my sister and I cleaned house. Cream of Wheat commercials and Let's Pretend....ah, fond memories. Nothing has equaled these dramatizations.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. So fun!By Kim Jeff CrouchA flash back to the past and nice that it's on CD and not vinyl.3 of 4 people found the following review helpful. All-time greatBy ShaniI grew up with this series, and am so pleased I can share it with my own children. Thank you!

5 Hours of Radio's Outstanding Children's Theatre from the 1940's 50's: Beauty and the Beast; Cinderella; Robin Hood; Hansel Gretel; King Arthur; Rapunzel; Bluebeard; The Enchanted Frog; The Chinese Nightingale; The Youth Who Learned to Shimmy Shake; Andine; The 12 Months. With the genius of producer/director/writer, Miss Nila Mack, children of all ages were inspired to be honest courageous to believe in "living happily ever after." Each program has been digitally restored remastered from the original CBS recordings for superior audio clarity. "Let's Pretend" won the George Foster Peabody Award.
