children, who has not reached yet technically to play sonatines, but wanting to play Beethoven. I came across this book in the local library and was very much delighted, that finally I found something for my son. Pieces are original, easier and yet have typical characteristics of the "Beethoven Style". Since I had to return the book, I decided to order myself one, and the Vol. 1 of this series.

Volume III features five bagatelles, variations, two sonatinas, and several well-known independent piano works.
