Hector Berlioz, Daniel Bernard : Life and Letters of Berlioz (Cambridge Library Collection - Music) (Volume 1) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Life and Letters of Berlioz (Cambridge Library Collection - Music) (Volume 1):

Hector Berlioz (1803-60189) was one of the most original and colourful composers of his generation, whose music in many ways was ahead of its time. He was also a highly respected journalist and critic, producing monthly articles for the Journal des Débats for over thirty years, as well as other writings including his posthumously published autobiographical Mmoires. Unlike journalism, which he disliked, letter-writing was a task which he relished and at which he excelled, producing sometimes four or five in a day and more than 3,500 during his lifetime. The letters reflect the man - exuberant, imaginative, idealistic, opinionated and witty - and give us a fascinating, first-hand, insight into his life. This two-volume selection includes some 300 examples. Volume 1 includes letters to family, fellow musicians such as Hiller, Liszt and Schumann, and friends such as Auguste Morel and fellow critic Joseph D'Ortigue.

About the Author Bernard is President and Founder of Somebody Cares, Tampa Bay. He holds an MA in Missiology and an Honorary Doctorate of Theology.
