

was expecting! The book itself was absolutely hilarious. The movies that were used couldn't have been any better (they were perfect) and the writing accompanying it was just off the walls amazing. Have I mentioned the illustrations yet? They rock! They're so fun and silly they are a perfect accompaniment This is the PERFECT book for those who are looking for a good time, or a GREAT gift. We had a ton of friends in town this past weekend and had such a great time watching movies and using this book for drinking games. I highly recommend this book for everyone! 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. When just watching movies isn't enough...By Kathryn HernandezHas anyone else noticed that Netflix doesn't always have the greatest selections? This book is the cure for the common movie. A great way to spruce up a old classic or a cult favorite, go to the nearest supermarket and load up on ingredients to make a coordinating cocktail for your next movie-fest! My favorite is the Sex and the City cosmopolitan where you take a drink anytime the girls name-drop a fashion brand. I also love 80's flicks so this is a great excuse for watching them for the 100th time. I thought I was the only one that made movie-specific drinks. Part of the fun is trying to remember the rules the next morning. Or what movie you watched. Or how you made two trips to the store to buy more vodka just to get through the second half of the movie. This book is a necessity for any movie buff or social butterfly. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. This book is a blast! By Mary GenHow could you NOT want to buy this book?! I mean seriously, you get to watch your favorite movies AND be given an excuse to drink even more than you already typically would on any given night?! Sounds like a winner to me! Each movie gets at least a two page spread about catchphrases or people in the film, and when you see those people or hear those phrases while screening one of the hilarious films in this book, you are quickly prompted to raise your glass and and have a toast! But just a tip, don't try this at home alone, and I would say nix a straight handle of vodka while reading this book. Or gin. Because then the results could get pretty messy. And we don't want our brand new IKEA rug to be completely tarnished as a result of watching too many of the movies in one sitting from ms Jason's and ms Metz's hysterical book, now do we? Please, think of the IKEA rug. Just drink wine OR beer. Or wine AND beer. Also, buy this book.

MAKE MOVIE NIGHT EPIC Invite friends over, mix some drinks, press play and drink, drink, drink every time Lights Camera Booze tells you to. Its 80-proof fun in front of the big screen when this book turns your favorite movies into drinking game parodies, including: Hand-drawn game boards Rules on when to drink Themed cocktails for each flick Post-movie sobriety challenges
