I stumbled on Pop Culture Happy Hour by accident By Alyssa I stumbled on Pop Culture Happy Hour by accident, and two and a half years later I'm still hooked. The hosts of the show have introduced me to so many wonderful things in pop culture that I never would have found on my own. And even if they're discussing a book or movie I think I have memorized, they bring new insight to everything. I feel 100x smarter about pop culture just listening to them speak! Bonus: Linda, Stephen, and Glen are hilarious and warm and wonderful. This podcast makes you want to be best friends with everyone on it. It's *literally* the Parks and Recreation of podcasts. 5 of 5 people found the following review helpful. Great way to share your favorite podcast By Terrianne E. Mauro LOVE Pop Culture Happy Hour -- it's the highlight of my week. And while a CD compilation is kind of a weird way to get to know a podcast, this does give me the opportunity to gift all those friends I've been raving to about PCHH the opportunity to hear it for themselves, forcibly if necessary. Knowing this is out there is what's making me happy this week. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Top Notch Podcasting, This Is.
