Radio Spirits : Old Time Radio's Greatest Westerns (Smithsonian Historical Performances) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Old Time Radio's Greatest Westerns (Smithsonian Historical Performances):

By William Powers Hi there, I like something in the background when I'm doing serious, yet leisurely activities such as working on my photos, or freelance writing, or even cleaning the apartment! This collection of Great Westerns really fits the bill, and although I expected the programs to be good, it turns out they are even better than I anticipated. "Fort Laramie" is so well written, and performed (right word?) it is nearly in a class of its own--these shows were far deeper and more interesting than cowboy yarns. Also exceptional are "Dr. Sixgun" (a far more sophisticated program than its title might indicate), "Have Gun Will Travel" (great title even!), and "Gunsmoke". The rest are superb listening as well, and only the omissions of "Bobby Benson and the B-R-B Ranch," and Gene Autry make it lack 5 Stars--but I highly recommend this set to all OTR listeners. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. great series of old westerns By Forrest G Ferone great series of old westerns. Some may take exception to the hokiness of some episodes, but these are what I grew up on.... 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By Raymond P. Reed I purchased these cassettes for my wife. She tells me, she just loves all the old stories.

This thirty hour 60 episode 20 Cassette collection is the newest companion to our very successful Greatest Shows and Comedy Collection. This collection includes 60 of the Greatest Old-Time Radio Westerns along with a 64 page booklet that details each show and its history. A great collectors edition and a great gift idea that costs only $1.00 per show!!!!
