From 8TH NOTE PUBLICATION : Organ Concerto in D Minor, BWV 596: Score Parts (Eighth Note Publications) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Organ Concerto in D Minor, BWV 596: Score Parts (Eighth Note Publications):

The Concerto in D minor is a truly exciting addition to the repertoire for brass choir. It has been dedicated to the fantastic players of the German Brass. This arrangement, for 4 trumpets, 2 horns, 2 trombones, euphonium and tuba, has been taken from an organ work by Bach. It is one of the transcriptions from a set of concertos for strings and basso continuo by Vivaldi entitled L'Estro Armonico. The transition from organ to brass makes the piece all the more exciting adding additional colours to Vivaldi's original string writing. The slow movement features the piccolo trumpet. A guaranteed success in a recital or concert program and combined with the natural acoustics of a church, this powerful music could be the central work in a brass choir program.
