Hollywood 360 : Our Miss Brooks, Vol. 2 (Hollywood 360 Classic Radio Collection) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Our Miss Brooks, Vol. 2 (Hollywood 360 Classic Radio Collection):

[Audio Theater] Join clever, sarcastic, kindhearted Miss Brooks as she navigates teaching English at Madison High School with this twelve-episode collection of one of old-time radio's most beloved comedy series. Our Miss Brooks was a situation comedy show heard on radio and seen on television and films starring Oscar winner Eve Arden. Her skill with the wicked one-liner and acid aside had begun to lead to typecasting so, to find a new image, Arden signed on for the lead in radio's Our Miss Brooks. The series centered on Connie Brooks, a smart, sharp-witted, lovable English teacher at fictional Madison High School. Between gentle wisecracks, Miss Brooks doted on nerdy student Walter Denton and frequently locked horns with crusty, cranky Principal Osgood Conklin, and many plot lines revolved around Miss Brooks' longing for Philip Boynton, the school's bashful biology teacher. Our Miss Brooks made a successful jump to TV in 1952 while the radio series lasted until 1957.

About the Author Eve Arden (1908-1990) was an American actress of stage, radio, film, and television. She is best known her her role as Connie Brooks in Our Miss Brooks. She was inducted into the Radio Hall of Fame in 1995. Gale Gordon (1906-1995) was a character actor known for playing stuffy characters, from military officers to high school principals. He appeared in I Love Lucy, The Honeymooners, Our Miss Brooks, and numerous other films and television series.
