I am an experienced trumpet player and I played the majority of the music correctly with sightreading, but I still need some more practice until I can play the songs perfectly. Some songs are in slightly different keys than I've heard in recordings, but it provides more playing ease without it necessarily being easier (the high notes are still high). Not much dynamic contrast is featured in some songs, but I believe this was intended so you can imitate whichever recording you like most, which is for me, the newer movie. The rhythms also vary slightly, so I simply wrote in my own preferable rythms. I also really like that there aren't short-cuts in the songs that I was expecting; it's the whole song through and through. As far as the songs themselves, they are beautiful. I will
