From Music Sales : Piano Pieces for Children (Everybody's Favorite Series, No. 3) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Piano Pieces for Children (Everybody's Favorite Series, No. 3):

Tremll bought Piano Pieces for Children on the recommendation of my piano teacher who told me not to be troubled by the name. She's right, saying it is for children makes it sound... well, childish. But these pieces are anything but. None of them are dumbed down for easy playing, they are just well selected and arranged and graded (I-IV) so you can find work at the appropriate level. Most importantly, the music is not boring. I'm personally a fan of classical music and want to play so that I can experience this music in a more intimate manner - playing exercises that are designed to be nothing more than exercises would drive me crazy. I highly recommend this for anyone learning to play and who is hoping to develop a fun, interesting repertoire. Also, find a good teacher to help you. I tried teaching myself for years, but I've made more progress in a few weeks under the guidance of a teacher than I did in years on my own. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. I love love love this book By JYeo I love love love this book. I've played this since I was young. So happy to find this book on and I must have it. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Very good book. Contains a wide variety of pieces By C. Beatty Very good book. Contains a wide variety of pieces, including many classics, arranged on a grade 3 level. Has something for everyone.

(Music Sales America). 100 compositions, progressively graded for grades 1 through 4, ranging from the works of the great masters to the folk tunes and dances from many countries.
